THE BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

By "Troop Scribe"

BASIS AND ORIGIN

It was in 1908 that Lord Baden-Powell, having held a trial camp at Brownsea Island in Poole Harbour during the previous summer, founded the Boy Scout Movement.

The main object of his scheme was the better development of good citizenship, and his first pamphlet on the subject bore the following significant quotation: "The same causes which brought about the downfall of the great Roman Empire are working to-day in Great Britain." The principles and practices of Scouting were therefore framed as far as possible to develop the efficient individual by training in character, physical health, and handicraft.

From a small start the movement rapidly spread, and to-day Scouting, far from being confined to Great Britain, has penetrated to every corner of the Empire, and altogether its influence extends through some 48 nations.

Scouting has been termed "a man's job cut down to the boy's size." It appeals to the boy, irrespective of race, colour, nationality or tongue, not merely because he is a boy, but because he is a man in the making, and aspires to manliness.

Right in the forefront of Scouting stands the Promise, which every Scout is required to make on enrolment: "On my honour I promise to do my best to (1) Do my duty to God and the King, (2) Help other people at all times, and (3) Obey the Scout Law." This threefold promise is the source from which the whole spirit of Scouting springs; it is the force that gives it life.

The Scout Law is derived from the Knights of King Arthur's Round Table. Dealing as it does with Honour, Loyalty, Usefulness, Friendliness, Courtesy, Kindness to Animals, Obedience, Cheerfulness, Thrift and Purity, it forms a self-imposed rule of life than which there can be none better.

METHODS AND ORGANIZATION

A complete Scout Group consists of a Cub Pack for boys from 8 to 12; a Boy Scout Troop for boys from 12 to 15; a Senior Scout Section for boys from 15 to 18; and a Rover Scout Crew for young men from 18 upwards. The various Sections are divided into Patrols of from 5 to 8 boys under a Patrol Leader. The Patrol is the permanent unit for work, games, competitions and camp, and this system utilizes to good effect the natural "gang" spirit possessed by all boys, whether for good or for mischief.

Scouting was started in Bookham as long ago as 1910 and, although the early history of the Troop is lost in obscurity, we know that it was one of the few Troops in the county that survived the First World War: it has continued in being ever since. To-day the Bookham Group has a fine record both in the Leatherhead district and in the county.

MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM AT POLESDEN LACEY

POLESDEN LACEY FESTIVAL STAGE

To mark the Festival Year 1951, the Bookham Community Association conceived the idea of building an open-air theatre and permission was granted by the National Trust for its construction at Polesden Lacey. With the assistance of voluntary helpers from the Community Association and in co-operation with the Leatherhead U.D.C. a permanent site for future performances has been established. This Open-Air Theatre will be officially handed over to the National Trust on the 30th June, 1951.

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

The Polesden Lacey production of Shakespeare's fanciful comedy is planned for an open-air stage set in surroundings of great natural beauty. The comic scenes in the play will be given prominence and music and ballet will be a special feature. Mendelssohn's compositions are to be played by the Surrey Philharmonic Orchestra of some 65 performers.

LEATHERHEAD DRAMATIC COMPANY

This company is outstanding among the many amateur societies in the district. Mrs. Phyllis Newman, who is the producer for Midsummer Night's Dream, has had wide experience in period and costume plays. Ballet and choreography are in the capable hands of Miss Daphne Prutton. For the occasion of the Polesden Lacey performances, the company will be strengthened by the addition of outstanding actors and actresses from other dramatic groups in the district.

SURREY PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

The Surrey Philharmonic Orchestra was formed in 1945 and is undoubtedly one of the finest of its kind in the country. Under its distinguished founder conductor, Miss Kathleen Riddick, it has given performances of great merit and has played a conspicuous part in fostering the love of orchestral music now evident throughout the county of Surrey. The first appearance of the Orchestra before a London audience will be at the Royal Festival Hall on the 29th October, 1951.

but perhaps never before has it been in so great a need of adult leaders.

On this account the work of all Sections is being slowed down, and boys asking to join the Scouts or Cubs are being turned away—just and only for want of more help.

In these days of heavy expenditure on rearmament it is not irrelevant again to quote Lord Baden-Powell, who some thirty years ago wrote: "A nation owes its success not so much to its strength in armaments as to the amount of character in its citizens. If, as we believe, this is true, it is a little tragic that, for want of adult leaders, boys—the citizens of to-morrow—are being denied a training for which they are asking, and which has for its aim the forming of character. An earnest appeal is therefore made for more leaders, both lady Cub-masters and men as Scouters.

NEWS

(i) The Bookham Scout Council have plans in hand to build an Arch-Gateway Entrance to the Scout Hall as a memorial gateway to those ex-Scouts of the Bookham Troop who made the supreme sacrifice in World War II.

(ii) In August next a World Jamboree of Scouts is to take place in Austria. Two Scouts from the Bookham Troop go to make up the Surrey Contingent of 128 (4 Troops). The fortunate Scouts are Patrol Leader Brian Cawte and Senior Scout Robin Leonard, both of whom expect to be King Scouts by the time they go overseas.

(iii) The Bookham Scout Committee—composed of parents and supporters—have undertaken to repair, repaint and redecorate the Scout Hall as a contribution to the Festival of Britain Local Celebrations.

Village Day

There is a possibility that last year's Village Day exhibition of "Bookhams—Past and Present" may be repeated this year. Offers of exhibits, especially of any which were not in time for last year's event, should be made to Mrs. E. Harrison, "Common End," Eastwick Drive, Great Bookham.

BOOKHAM COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION NEWS

The Table Tennis Club

The Annual General Meeting was held on Saturday, 28th April. Owing to the resignation of Mr. A. Stimpson, due to his call-up to the Forces, Mr. D. Rattenbury took the chair. The Committee reported a successful season in the Leatherhead, Epsom and District League, the Club having won a total of 21 matches. The 1st team finished third in Division I. In the individual championships of the same league Miss M. Austin had won the women's singles and the mixed doubles, and Mr. J. Stimpson the junior singles titles. Messrs. J. Coomber and J. Smith had reached the final of the men's doubles.

There are now vacancies for new players, also for a few beginners. The possibility of lowering the age limit to 9 years is under consideration.

The following Committee were elected for the ensuing year: Chairman, Miss M. Austin; Honorary Treasurer, Mr. D. Rattenbury; Honorary Match Secretary, Mr. J. Coomber; Honorary General Secretary, Miss E. Benn, "Fetcham Holt," Lower Road, Fetcham, Surrey; Committee members: Messrs. J. Thick and J. Stimpson.

The Club now meets on Monday evenings, and on some Saturday evenings, at 6.30 p.m. There are vacancies for experienced players and for a few beginners. Applications should be addressed to the General Secretary.

THE OVER 60's CLUB

On the 7th March a tea party was arranged by the Women's Committee to which everyone over the stipulated age limit was welcomed. The gathering was well attended and Miss Jean Hensdredge added to the enjoyment by singing in her usual delightful way.

The proposal to start a Club was put forward, and Mrs. Lankester kindly spoke about the experience of the Leatherhead Over 60's Club. The proposal was accepted and it was decided that the Club should meet every Tuesday at the Old Barn Hall from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m., starting the following week.

The Club is now going ahead well, and it is hoped to arrange fresh forms of entertainment from time to time. The Effingham W.I. Drama Group have already given a delightful one-act play to a Club meeting.

The Club has received two donations, one from the Leatherhead Over 60's Club and one anonymously. Both were most gratefully accepted and will go to swell the general fund.

The Naturalists' Group

The Naturalists' Group proposed some time ago was inaugurated on Thursday, 3rd May. A most enjoyable illustrated lecture was given by Mr. W. H. Rivett, F.G.S., F.Z.S., under the title of "Dinosaurs," Mr. Rivett told an absorbing story of prehistoric natural history, which was greatly enjoyed by a small but enthusiastic audience.

After the lecture the question of forming a Naturalists' Group was discussed and it was agreed to go forward. A temporary Committee was formed to act for one month, and the following were elected: Mrs. N. E. Waterfield, Mr. B. Cheston, Mr. G. J. Y. Everett, with the Honorary Secretary of the Community Association acting as temporary Secretary.

After the meeting the various geological exhibits were inspected and Mr. Rivett was warmly thanked for his talk.

EDITORIAL

As we go to press London's Festival celebrations are gathering momentum. Already the first concerts have been given in the magnificent new Festival Hall. The Royal Family have toured the Exhibition on the South Bank, including the arresting display of British scientific enterprise in the Dome of Discovery—the biggest dome in the world, we are told. The Skylon, delicately poised, rears its gleaming latticework pencil to the heavens, emblematic of mankind's upward climb, continuing through the coming century the story of progress which has been constantly unfolding since the Exhibition of 1851.

The construction of the South Bank itself has been an engineering achievement. Those of us from Bookham who journey to Waterloo station daily have seen with satisfaction slums being cleared, a derelict brewery demolished and many acres of river mud reclaimed; to create out of the ugliness and squalor of the old South Bank something worthy of the greatest city in the world.

Bookham's Festival celebrations happily do not need the help of the architect or the engineer. Year after year nature brings us her own Festival décor in the miracle of spring—"Rainbows; and the blue bitter smoke of wood; And radiant raindrops couching in cool flowers; And flowers themselves, that sway through sunny hours, dreaming of moths that drink them under the moon."

These things are so familiar to us that they are apt to become commonplace. In the magical atmosphere of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," however, we shall find that after all we still believe in fairies. Queen Titania, Oberon and Puck will be at Polesden Lacey on June the 30th. Mind you are not too late to book a seat!

Special note: We regret a printing error in Cameron's (High Street.) advertisement. "Creamier Ice Cream" should have been "Cremier Ice Cream".

The Church Restoration Fund.

During the past three years the Parochial Church Council have had to expend £700 on repairs to the vestry and the lych gate, together with the repainting of the tower. They have now been faced with a further and unexpected demand owing to the rapid deterioration of the soft stone part of the church. The architect, Mr. Alban Carce, has advised that the carrying-out of some £700 of work, to restore denatured stone and to relay some of the flooring of the church affected by dry rot, is both essential and urgent. The Council have placed the contracts and are now appealing for gifts to enable them to meet the bill. An appeal is being made to all residents for help on Gift Day, Saturday the 26th May.

Local organizations have already come to our help; the Choral Society have sung Bach's "Motet" — "Jesus Priceless Treasure." The Tennis Club are organizing a dance to raise funds, and the Bookham Camera Club, through Mr. Percival Ball, have made a study of the progress of the work.

The War Memorial. Donations for the extension of the War Memorial have been made by the Residents' Association and the Community Association. To this was added the collection in church on Armistice Sunday, 1950.

SPORTS NEWS BOOKHAM FOOTBALL CLUB, 1950-51

The first team's record, as usual, has been erratic. As these notes are written Bookham "firsts" are still the only team in the League to have beaten Esher Old Boys twice, and the only team to have beaten Pyrford at all. Yet they allowed Weymanns and Surbiton Legion to force a draw, and were beaten on their own ground by Walton Casuals in December. The major team changes of February, in which five out of the six defence positions were filled by newcomers, have helped to strengthen the side, but the forwards have not looked a force since mid-November, except for one spell in February when 22 goals were scored in three matches.

The changes in the defence have certainly been drastic. Only one man, Tom Guy, has maintained his place from start to finish, and he was moved from right-back to left-back when Roy Crumblehulme dropped out in November. Terry Cassidy, in goal, lost his form completely in mid-season, and was replaced by Jim Guy, but Terry has since come back to his best, and with Jim also playing steadily the selectors have an unenviable task. Tom Guy has had three partners at full-back this season. The first was Roy Crumblehulme and the second the 16-year-old Brian Winter, who faded somewhat after a most promising start, but has since played well for the reserves. In February Sid Rollinson took over, and has shown an improvement remarkable in a man of 31. His great height and tremendously strong kicking have saved many awkward situations, and only the outside-left of Walton and Hershams "A" has had an easy time against him.

The forwards have been disappointing. Constant changes necessitated by illness and injury have prevented the line from settling down, and the inability to find an adequate centre-forward has been a serious weakness throughout. John Kilner, Don Durban and Allan Jones proved successively that their best positions are elsewhere, and Peter Durban, though the best of the four, has not fulfilled the promise of his first games in the position, and in recent matches has been alarmingly slow. It is to be hoped that we have not seen the end of his football at the early age of 26. His brother Don has been his usual erratic self, brilliant and maddening by turns, and his best games this season seem to have been played at outside-left. He is a better footballer in away matches. Ted Ayres gave a good performance against Esher towards the end of the season, and Allan Jones made up in speed what he lacked in control of the ball.

George Quirk was disappointing: in the early matches he showed himself capable of brilliant football, but too often his cleverness led him to over-elaboration and at times to pure showmanship, which eventually cost him his place in the side. Illness has prevented Ben Poulter from playing regularly, but he has been of much value to the side, whether as dashing left-winger or as hard-working inside-forward. Fred Puttock has always been good enough to keep his place in the Intermediate side.

The second team, under the experienced leadership of Sid Harris senior, have suffered from constant calls for help from the first eleven. They have in Jack Mackness a dour and combative defender, in John Coomber a fast outside-right who has been extremely unlucky not to find a place in the first team, and in the younger Sid Harris a promising wing-half. During the season they have lost Alec Booth, the Smith brothers and George Goldspink to the Services.

The Juniors have been unfortunate in that they have constantly been called upon to supply players for the other teams. All their best players of September were by April playing in one or other of the senior sides, and two were doing well with the first eleven. Under the guidance of Mr. Smith the Junior team are now picking up well, but new junior talent is a vital matter for the future of the club.

LORRY FOR HIRE

The Intermediate League side have done well. They have played 25 matches, of which 18 have been won, two drawn and five lost, with a goal average of 100 to 50, and, at the moment of writing, have one League match to play. They also survived to the fourth round of the Surrey Junior Cup and the second round of the League Challenge Cup. The Reserves have played 15 Dorking and District League matches, winning three, losing eight and drawing four. They still have to play the final of the League Challenge Cup against Beare Green.

To finish on a less happy note: The first team at least have almost invariably played their best games away from home, and player after player has emphasized that he prefers the away matches because, "I don't like the Bookham crowd." May one express the hope that some of Bookham's more vocal, though no doubt well-intentioned, home "supporters" will take note of this?

THE BOOKHAM AND EFFINGHAM YOUTH COUNCIL

The Executive met on Monday, 16th April, at the Scout Hall, Great Bookham, Mr. L. R. Hutchison (Chairman of the Youth Council) presiding. On this occasion the Executive were honoured by the presence of Mr. Ewart Bell, the officer of the Surrey County Council who is responsible for Further Education.

After a statement on the financial position, the meeting received a report from the Secretary on the arrangements being made for the use of the swimming bath at The Lodge, Effingham, by local youth organizations. The bath would be open from 6.15 to 7.15 p.m. for junior groups and from 7.30 to 8.30 p.m. for seniors. Mixed bathing would not be permitted, and an adult in authority would be present throughout both junior and senior sessions. Any youth organization wishing to take advantage of these facilities should write to Mr. E. E. Thornton, The Depot, Hook Road, Epsom.

Mr. Bell then spoke briefly on the functions, within the county educational scheme, of Youth Councils and Community Associations. Youth Councils should beware that they did not become too immersed in their own affairs to the exclusion of wider interests. Mr. Bell advised closer co-operation between the Bookham and Effingham Youth Council and the Bookham Community Association, and following discussion it was agreed that it would be helpful if the officers of the Youth Council were to discuss with representatives of the Community Association the whole range of youth organizations in relation to local needs.

The Annual General Meeting of the Youth Council was fixed for Monday, the 18th June, at 8 p.m. at the Scout Hall.
