LEATHERNEAD . AND DISTRICT LOCAL HISTORY SOCIETY

53 Nutcroft Grove, FETCHAM.

Tel: L'head 3127

2nd July, 1947.

Dear Fellow-Member.

Society Library

The first books, as listed below, are available for borrowing after the llth July:-

Winbolt With a Spade on Stane Street!

Homans English Villagers of the 13th Century'.

Bennett 'Life on the English Manor, 1150-1400'.

Tate The Parish Chest. Atkinson 'Field Archaeology'.

Whimster County Archaeology - Surrey

Jenkinson 'Palaeography & the Practical Study of Court Hand'

St. John Hope 'Grammar of Heraldry'.

Skeat 'English Dialects'.

Martin 'Record Interpreter'.

Wake 'How to Compile a History ' Present-day Record of Village Life'.

Copthorne & Effingham ... 'Wictoria County History'.

Notice of additional books available will be circulated from time to time. It is hoped Members will use the service provided, and suggestions for new items, whether elementary or advanced works will be welcomed.

A COPY OF THE LIBRARY RULES IS APPENDED, AND SHOULD BE CAREFULLY PRESERVED FOR FUTURE REFERENCE.

Library Fund. Members have already contributed most generously to the Fund, and grateful thanks are due to them; but the actual number who have responded is at present disappointing. The creation of a stock of always available reference and textbooks is essential, and members are urged to help to the best of their ability. No contribution will be too small to be gratefully appreciated.

TOUR of the CHURCHES - 19th July. Will Members intending to participate please let me know as soon as possible, since arrangements for transport and tea must be made early. Early notice for the R. Mole tour in August will also be necessary.

Yours sincerely, A.T. Ruby. Jt. Hon. Secretary.

LIBRARY RULES

Leatherhead and District Local History Society.

1. Members are expected to take all reasonable care of the books they borrow, and will be held responsible for any loss or damage to them. The facilities are provided for members of the Society only, and books must not be transferred to any other persons. Borrowers should immediately report to the Librarian any defect which they may observe in any book borrowed.

2. A book may be borrowed for a first period of not exceeding 14 days. Application for renewal for a further period may be granted provided the book is not otherwise in demand.

- 3. Books may be borrowed on Thursdays between the hours of 8.0 and 10.0 p.m. or by special arrangement with the Librarian.
- 4. Borrowers must notify the Librarian of any permanent change of address, and in the case of infectious disease occurring at the borrower's residence. In such case of infection the book must be retained by the borrower pending further instructions.

The Librarian is: Mrs. W. Rhydderch, 18 The Crescent, Leatherhead.
Telephone: Libead 2729.