Dear Fellow Member,

Reminder

Saturday, 18th September

Fungus Foray on Box Hill

Under the leadership of Dr. Topping, we are proposing another Fungus Foray on Box Hill. We shall meet at Juniper Hall at 2.45. The No.470 leaves The Crescent, Leatherhead, at 2.25 for Juniper Hall and for those who travel by car, there is a car park.

Teas can be arranged at a cost of 1s.9d. each at the Hall and after tea the specimens collected will be exhibited at the laboratory.

Expenses: Tea 1s.9d.

Courses

1. The University of London announce a Series of Extra Mural Extension Courses in Archaeology, History (including Local History) and Allied Subjects for the Session 1954/5.

Full particulars may be obtained from our Hon. Secretary, Mr. A.T. Ruby, M.B.E., 53, Nutcroft Grove, Fetcham.

2. The Workers' Educational Association, Dorking Branch, give information about classes at Friends Meeting House, South Street, Dorking, commencing 27th September, in Natural History. The Tutor will be Mr. A.P.H. Sankey of Juniper Hall. The Leatherhead Branch have arranged a series of classes at the Priory, Leatherhead, commencing Thursday, 30th September, in Domestic Architecture, to include Building Design, Decorations and Furnishings throughout the Ages.

Yours sincerely,

P. G. SHELLEY,

(Hon. Assistant Secretary)
