Thursday 22nd May. Lecture by G.C. Titmus, Esq., on 'Your County Newspaper'. Mr. Titmus was a member of the British Delegation at the Anglo-German Press Conference held at Konigswinter as guest of the West German Government attended by seven British Members of Parliament. He has been also Surrey Representative on the Council and member of the Executive of the Chartered Institute of Journalists and a member of the National Union of Journalists for over thirty years, and has served on the Editorial Staff of Provincial Evening and Local Newspapers in various parts of the country.

THE ABOVE MEETINGS WILL TAKE PLACE AT THE LEATHERHEAD INSTITUTE, HIGH STREET, LEATHERHEAD, AND MEMBERS ARE PARTICULARLY ASKED TO NOTE THIS CHANGE OF VENUE. CAR PARKING IS AVAILABLE AT THE REAR OF THE INSTITUTE, DRIVING IN BY THE SIDE OF THE BUILDING.

Time - 8 p.m. for 8.15 p.m.

Overcrowding of the Reeves Room has necessitated the altered venue and it is hoped that members will welcome the change.

The Committee are considering arranging a visit to Porchester Castle, Hants. and the Fishbourne Romano-British site near Chichester. A coach party can be arranged provided sufficient support is forthcoming. The date would probably be Saturday 20th September and the visit in all would last from approximately 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. The approximate cost would be 16/- exclusive of meals, for which members should make their own arrangements. Those members who are motorists may welcome a respite from the rigours of driving and there will be no parking worries. As the coach must be booked well in advance of the date, it will be appreciated if members will kindly notify the undersigned of their intention to join the party not later than 24th April. ~~Please use the enclosed form.~~

Capt. Lowther has asked that the following explanation of the Colophon at the back of the new issue of the Proceedings (Vol. 3 No. 1) should be noted here.

'This flagon was almost certainly made at the potteries at Fulham (still existing) or Lambeth, both of which turned out Bellarmine flagons made of stoneware of buff colour flecked with brown and glazed and usually ornamented with a grotesque mask.'

A course of six lectures on archaeological field techniques will be given at Surbiton Secondary School, Surbiton Hill Road, on Wednesdays at 7.15 p.m., beginning on 29th April. Those interested should write to the School Principal.

Historical Notes

The following extracts from the Leatherhead Parish Magazine may be of interest to members.

January 1886.

'Our review of the year (1885) has no special outbreak of sickness to record, and the condition of the Parish has been fairly healthy. The number of Marriages in Church has been 23; of Baptisms 100; and of Burials 59.

The chief events in connexion with the Church has been the erection of a Lich Gate, which has added greatly to the appearance of the Churchyard, and the enlargement of the Organ, which is now a truly grand instrument - and was heard to advantage at the Re-opening Recital given by Mr. Hoyte, on 17th December.'

Later in the Magazine the Re-opening of the Organ is described.

'This Organ was originally built by Sneltzler, about the year 1750. It was repaired and enlarged to meet the needs of the Church when removed in 1873 from the West Gallery to its present position. The funds then available were not sufficient, however, to carry out thoroughly the repairs that were needed, and the instrument has since fallen into dilapidation. The Organ has now been rebuilt, completely modernized, and enlarged at considerable expense, the work being done, as in 1873, by Messrs. J.W. Walker and Sons, of London. ----- The keyboard of the original organ, which was played upon by Handel, is now exhibited as an interesting relic in the Church.'

February 1886.

'During the recent severe weather a Soup Kitchen has been opened on Tuesdays and Fridays from 12 to 1 p.m., behind Mr. Tribe's shop. About 75 gallons per week has been distributed. The kitchen will be kept open as long as it appears to be really required.'

'A Free Registry will be opened during the present month at the Registrar's Office, Mr. F. Hailstone's, Church Street, Letherhead, for the parishes of Ashted, Fetcham and Letherhead. Working Men, Artisans, Labourers and Mechanics of respectable character, who have been residents not less than six months within the district formed by the three parishes, may enter their names at the Registry, free of charge when in want of employment. The Registrar will be in constant communication with employers of labour in the neighbourhood. The plan has been tried with great success at Egham, and it is hoped that it may be found useful to the respectable resident working men in our parish and the neighbouring parishes of Ashted and Fetcham.'

May 1886

A Clergyman's Sister, residing in this neighbourhood, is desirous of Meeting with Afternoon or Music Pupils. Acquirments - English, French, music and the rudiments of Latin. M., 3 Bridge Street, Letherhead.
